The dream: I am in a place where I have to pay an amount for admission. I know that I do not have enough money with me. I have a sense of anxiety because I need to go forward and I do not have the money required to continue. I turn around to go back.

And then, out of the corner of my eye, at my right hand side, I see a silver, shiny R 2 lying on the ground and I pick it up. I realize that I now have enough money to do what I must do. I get a sense that God has provided to me when I really needed it. While I am kneeling to pick up the money, I see several other coins on the ground. I pick up hands full of coins. Something that stood out was a large number of 20c pieces that I have picked up.

Interpretation: I am in a state of decisionmaking with some anxiety about future provision and the context that is provided in the dream points to provision. In a sense this is an emotional dream with a deeper spiritual meaning. The sense of anxiety is a reflection of my inner concerns and anxiety about provision for the future. The Lord shows that He acknowledges my concerns and that He is fully aware of it. When I turn around He shows me a source that is both unexpected as well as miraculous. It is on the right hand side, which points to a revelation or provision that comes from the Spiritual (out of the Hand of God).

The moment I how my knee in submission to God to receive His provision, he opens the storehouse and give me much more than I needed. He then speaks a truth right into my heart "He provided for me when I really needed it. I did not ask for the provision, but He knew that I needed it." He then provides in abundance, out of love and grace. The Lord also gave me Zech 13:9 "they will call on my Name, and I will hear and answer them..... The Word also says that God knows the desires from our heart, even before you have prayed. He calls on us to trust Him fully and to rely on Him for all things. If we have our face and our expectations fully upon Him, and we bow our knees before Him in submission, out of His storehouse, He will provide abundantly to us, even more than we have expected. I now know with a certainty, that our Father will always be there to assist us. It will often feel that He is too late, but He will be always be on time. We just need to trust, rely and depend on Him for all things.

Symbol of the Month - Cricket

I am not a big lover of cricket, but as the Cricket World cup was held recently, this symbol seems to be somewhat prominent. In a lighter note (though sad at the same time) is the loss of the South African cricket team in the semi-finals of the world cup. It was interesting to note that the Proteas needed 222 runs at an average of 4.44 runs per over to win the game. Now if you look at the gematria of 222 and 444, the following emerges: The Hebrew word chadarah (trembling) used in 2 King 4:13, Charad (afraid) in Job 37:1, qalal (curse) in Ps 37:22 and 'otseb (sorrow) in Is 14:3 all have a gematria of 222. While natah (stretch) in Ex 23:2 and the Greek word basanizo (torment) in Rev 12:2 have a gematria of 444. It would seem as if all of these words reflected what the Proteas went through. But enough about that.

As with all games, the game of cricket symbolizes a process of negotiation, engagement or contention. Cricket would therefore symbolize:

- Skillful negotiations:- It shows that you are involved in negotiations where patience and skill is a requirement.
- Protracted argument:- There will be times where you must attack aggressively but you will also be required to defend your position. It may be a protracted argument which will not necessarily be resolved or concluded (Jos 24:8, 1 Sam 14:47).

It contains a life lesson for all of us. The Word cautions us that patience and good judgment are good virtues. Another lesson is that even though we may work for a long time (even years) on a particular project or dream, it is possible that there will not be a conclusion to the matter. If you dream about playing cricket and you are batting, you need to take note from which direction the person is bowling at you. If it is from the left-hand (world) side, you are cautioned that there will be natural circumstances that is aimed at unsettling you and that you have to stand firm (block) and deal with the attack from a natural perspective. If the ball is coming at you from the right-hand side, you are cautioned that there is a demonic attack coming against you and that you need to wear your spiritual armour (Eph 6) and resist the enemy (Jam 4:7) in order to overcome the attack. Running between the wickets can often represent the activities that you are engaging in to overcome the enemy. This frantic activity can make you tired and cause you to lose your peace and can show that you are trying too hard out of own skills and ability and that you need to stay calm, focused and determined in order to overcome.

April 2011 Seminars

With the public holidays April will be a short month and we will only be doing one weekend seminar in this month.

April 2011

Logos Conference Centre, Brackenfell

May 2011

We have invitations to the Paarl, Hermanus, Oudtshoorn and the Northern Cape for the month of May. We will not be able to do all of these in May and we are still finalizing arrangements.
